Pastor's Corner

Welcome to Mid-Summer! After our brief heat wave, we have settled into milder mixed days of blue skies and clouds, of sun and rain. All as it should be and welcoming in so many ways!

As your pastor, you have created for me experiences to "see" many things in new and different lights. Some eye opening, others a bit more subtle, like being in the shade and walking into the sunshine where you can see more clearly. Thanks for the light!

We all have experiences that create that notion that "the light just came on." Some are wonderful, some are harsh, but all are moments that guide us, that move us forward. We have often considered embracing these experiences as "God moments."

Moments in our lives that add to our understanding of each other, understanding our fellow travelers. The gift of these experiences is the wisdom they add to our hearts and minds.

Jesus taught often in parables: stories that described life's moments and invited us to consider and discern what they meant and the lessons they taught us. As in our live's moments, the lessons aren't always easy to figure out. What is wonderful is, when we are really stumped, we have each other to help see the light. Our community!

Be the light! Let it shine, help each other understand and not judge.

I invite you to cherish and nurture this community of fellow travelers; be the light for one another. In living and sharing together, you will be creating the gift of wisdom: you will be creating God Moments!

Steve
