Pastor's Corner

The scent and feel of the air suggest there is a season called Spring! Isn't it a blessing!

As we move deeper into this season—whether it be Easter, springtime, or simply the next chapter of our life together—we are reminded that the life of faith is not a solo journey. It's a shared path, one where we walk beside one another with grace, patience, and hope.

Our world often encourages independence and self-sufficiency, but the Gospel calls us to something richer: community. We are the children of God—imperfect, beloved, and stronger together. Whether we are rejoicing or grieving, questioning or confident, growing or resting—we do it best when we do it together.

Moving forward doesn't always mean going fast. Sometimes it means taking small steps with intention, listening more closely, or reaching out a hand to help someone else along the way. It means choosing connection over isolation, love over fear, and courage over comfort.

We are stepping intentionally and deliberately with our Ecumenical Services, our Care Initiative, and our clear and present desire to be community for all: to pray for all, to assist all, to love all!

When you read this, we will have discussed at Sunday's service the continuation of 5th Sunday community services and how best we might take other steps forward.

So let us keep going—together. Let us build one another up, encourage each other in faith, and make room for both challenge and celebration. The Spirit is still moving, still speaking, still calling us into deeper fellowship and wider witness.

Let's be a church that looks not just inward, but outward—a community that embraces the future not with anxiety, but with expectation and trust in God's unfolding grace.

Coffee
HOUR

Guest Speaker
Taiba Dawlat

June 15

The Mission Committee invites all to settle in during coffee hour for a fascinating presentation by our friend, Taiba Dawlat.

Taiba will share her experiences as a child laborer, a deaf refugee, a language-learner, a college graduate, and a professional working to help others. Her stories of Afghanistan, then and now, are sure to be of great interest to all!

PENTECOST

Come and enjoy the experience!

Worship with Our Neighbors

Sunday, June 29

and St. David's (like our church) has only
"natural" air conditioning,
please dress comfortably.

A selection of light and refreshing items will follow the service.
